

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER: People of Faith Confront Hate Crimes

Video, study guide and resource packet

A set of tools to help you organize and lead a study group in your local church – only $5

Many additional resources are available through the Methodists in New Directions website at www.mindny.org.

FOLLOWING THE SUCCESSFUL November 2010 My Brother's Keeper symposium on hate crimes, at which 150 people gathered to educate ourselves about hate crimes and to articulate a Christian response and a Christian imperative to respond, organizers of the symposium have compiled a video from the event and written a study guide to accompany it.

The video and study guide, together with resource materials researched and prepared for the symposium, are available for congregations interested in deepening their own awareness and witness against hate violence and the biases and prejudices that feed it.
